YOU'RE GETTING WARMER

POWER PLAY 2.0

by RICHARD HELLESEN

Music and Lyrics by MICHAEL SILVERSHER

Directed by JOHN-DAVID KELLER

In Alex's house appliances are humming with electricity. But the polar bear in the basement keeps turning up the air conditioner, because it may be winter, but it's still too warm outside. Wait a minute! What's a polar bear doing in the basement? Maybe it has something to do with climate change. It's up to Alex to find out what's happening at the North Pole, and how he, and everyone on earth, can find ways to use less power and get along just fine—and send the polar bear home!
